Iris Viveros Avendaño receives 2020-2021 GO-MAP Dissertation Fellowship

Submitted by Catherine Richardson on August 31, 2020 - 9:03am

Iris Viveros Avendaño received a Grad School Dissertation Fellowship to write her dissertation "Feminista Dance Disruptions in Fandango Temporalities" during this academic year. Focusing on how to theorize and generate decolonial knowledge implemented through and with the body, in collectivity, in synchronous musical performance and dances known as fandango, Iris examines resistance to state violence in chapters titled Performing Polyrhythmic Resistance, Listening of Dissent, and Fue el Estado.

Graduate Opportunities and Minority Achievement Program (GO-MAP)

News Category: Honors and Awards
- Student Success

People Involved: Iris Viveros Avendaño

Department of Gender, Women & Sexuality Studies
University of Washington
B110 Padelford Hall, Box 354345
Seattle, WA 98195

Phone: (206) 543-6900
Fax: (206) 685-9555
gwss@uw.edu