Undergraduate Programs

Gender, Women and Sexuality Studies provides a window into discussions about globalization, violence, commerce, reproductive rights, art, music and many other issues. Students gain broad exposure to interdisciplinary methods and activist strategies, and are trained to analyze inequities in society and work toward social justice and change.

Please see the following pages for more information about our undergraduate degrees:

- Major
- Minor
- Advising
- Careers
- Internships and Suggested Internship Sites
- Honors

Students may also find helpful information in the Resources section.

Department of Gender, Women & Sexuality Studies
University of Washington
B110 Padelford Hall, Box 354345
Seattle, WA 98195

Phone: (206) 543-6900
Fax: (206) 685-9555
gwss@uw.edu

Source URL: https://gwss.washington.edu/undergraduate-programs