

Ph.D. Program Language Requirement Form

Ph.D. students are expected to demonstrate proficiency in a language or language(s) relevant to their area of specialization. Please consult with your Faculty Advisor to determine what language(s) are best suited to your area of study. If students have not established foreign language competency before entering the graduate program, they are urged to do so as soon as possible in their graduate careers. Courses taken to fulfill the language requirement do NOT count toward the Feminist Studies Ph.D.

The Language Requirement must be completed prior to the student's General Examinations.

Proficiency appropriate to a student's area of specialization (oral, written, and/or reading ability) may be demonstrated in ONE of the following ways:

Educational Assessment Center test (scores vary depending on language)

Language Course taken at the third-year level (minimum acceptable grade is 2.7)

Test administered by Professor _____ in the Department of _____ Native speaker of _____

Degree and manner of proficiency will be left to the discretion of the student's Faculty Advisor / Supervisory Committee Chair.

In the space below please explain how proficiency was or will be met:

This form and any accompanying documentation of proficiency must be submitted to Catherine Richardson in PDL B110 or by email at car945@uw.edu for departmental records.

Student Name:

Student Number:

Date:

Faculty Advisor(s) Signatures: