

Pamela E. Yee Gender and Disability Studies Award Undergraduate

Pamela E. Yee Gender and Disability Studies Award (Undergraduate Student)

Amount: $250

This award is given annually to an undergraduate student for a written and/or visual project on any topic that most successfully integrates gender and disability studies.

Nomination

Nominator's Name:

Nominator's GWSS Affiliation: Faculty Advisor Peer

Non GWSS: Faculty

I nominate _____ for this award based on:

Submission

The prize will be decided by the GWSS Awards Committee at the end of Spring Quarter and will consider projects submitted within the previous 18 months.

For consideration in time for the departmental graduation ceremony on Wednesday, June 6, 2018, submit nominations no later than 5:00 pm on Friday, April 27, 2018.

Submit award application materials to Program Coordinator, Catherine Richardson at car945@uw.edu or drop off a hard copy in her office B110 Padelford Hall.

The award is given in honor of Pam Yee, eldest child of Donald and Audrey Yee and sister of Shirley, David, and Steven Yee.